

PRESS RELEASE

CRIME SOLVERS SEEKS INFORMATION

The Fauquier County Crime Solvers is seeking information regarding two incidents where animals were recently shot in Fauquier County.

On October 19th, it was reported to the Fauquier Sheriff's Office that a horse had been found dead in a field in the area of Old Morgansburg Rd., Bealeton. The horse was shot.

On the 21st of October another report was made to the Sheriff's Office that a longhorn cow was found dead as a result of being shot with an arrow. This incident occurred off of Mount Eccentric Road near The Plains, VA.

Anyone with information regarding these two shootings is asked to call the Fauquier County Crime Solvers at 540-349-1000. Remember, you do not have to give your name, only the information. If your information leads to an arrest or an indictment, you could be eligible for a reward up to $1,000.00.
